

CURRICULUM VITAE

Name: Jacques Bremen
Date of birth: 1 September 1941 in Boussu, Belgium
Nationality: Belgian

QUALIFICATIONS

Doctor of Medicine, Surgery and Childbirth in July 1966, magna cum laude

Certificate from the Medical Commission of the Province of Brabant (7 February 1967)

Registration with the Brabant Medical Association: no. 4951

Surgery specialist (qualified 22 November 1973)

Competence in trauma surgery: certificate awarded by the Belgian Association of Specialist Doctors (GBS) on 14 March 1981

Qualification as Specialist Orthopedic Surgeon (27 July 1987).
(Ministry of Public Health: no. 16/846) (Official number 1-24951-82-480).

POSITIONS

- Assistant to the General Surgery Department at Saint-Pierre University Hospital in Brussels (Professor A. Bremer) between 1 September 1966 and 13 July 1977.

(Voluntary assistant (1 September 1966 - 31 December 1967); temporary from 1 January 1968 - 31 May 1972); full-time position (11/11ths) from 1 June 1972 - 15 July 1977).
- COR surgeon at the Cologne Military Hospital from 1 November 1969 - 30 October 1970
- Full-time Head of Orthopedic and Trauma Surgery Department at Braine-l'Alleud-Waterloo Hospital from 14 July 1977 until present
- Head of General Surgery Department (elected in September 1993; took up position on 1 July 1994) at Braine-l'Alleud-Waterloo Hospital

TITLES

- Van Engelen Award 1966
- Independent researcher at the Experimental Surgery Laboratory (Professor A. Bremer): 1966-1974
- Professor of Anatomy: 1971 – 1973 (ULB)
- Foreign assistant at the Trauma Department (Professor Decoux) at Lille University Hospital (March-April 1972)
- Full member of the Belgian Society for Orthopedic Surgery and Traumatology
- Ordinary member of the Royal Belgian Society for Surgery
- Full member of the Royal Belgian Society for Gastroenterology
- Member of the Belgian Society for Infectious Diseases
- Member of the Association of Medical Graduates from the Free University of Brussels (ULB) (AMUB)
- Member of the International Association for Research into Osseous Circulation (ARCO)
- Supervising teacher at ULB for the graduat and post-graduate degrees (orthopedic surgery) since 1 January 1985
- Member of the department offering the DES degree in orthopedic surgery at the ULB since 1986
- Supervising teacher officially recognised (with official placement service) by the Ministry for Public Health and Environment for specialist training in orthopedics (2 placement assistants) (3 February 1993)
- Member of GBS – Orthopedics 27 March 1991
- Member of the Trauma Committee at the Royal Belgian Society for Surgery (30 September 1991)
- Member of the Belgian Society for Research into Physical Injuries
- Reserve Medical Officer

- Member of the board of the Association of Supervising Teachers at the ULB (non-profit association)
- Co-opted member (Association of Supervising Teachers) of the Faculty Council of the ULB Faculty of Medicine (1995)
- Member of the Joint National Committee for Orthopedic Accreditation (1994-)
- Vice-President of the Board of Directors of Braine-l'Alleud-Waterloo hospital (1994-2000)
- Lecturer at ULB (since 1 May 1999 -): seminars and clinical exercises in orthopedics-traumatology at Braine-l'Alleud-Waterloo hospital – 15 hours – option – Med 7. Honorary lecturer since 1 October 2006
- President of non-profit association CHIREC Orthopedic Surgeons (elected 18 January 2002).
- Representative of the Association of Supervising Teachers to the Committee for placement of medical students at the ULB (6 February 2002)
- INAMI accreditation: renewed 1 July 2005 – 30 June 2008
- Elected member of the CHIREC local Medical Council (Braine-l'Alleud-Waterloo site): 2001 – 2007
- Elected member of the CHIREC General Medical Council: 2003-2007
- Acting President of the CML CHIREC HBW: April 2007 – December 2007